Essay on the Liability of Infants for their Contracts. By Spring Reeve Esq

By the term infancy in our Law is understood a person under the age of 21 years. During the period of infancy, the infant is subjected to the authority of his master, Parent, or Guardian, as the case may be - His services belong to them, and it is generally true that, he cannot bind himself by his contracts, in such a manner as not to have it in his power to avoid those contracts if he pleases to avoid them. The contracts of others with him shall bind them, even when there is no direct intention than the infants contract. Although an infant is not liable for his contracts, yet he is liable both civiliter and criminaliter for his torts. An infant at the age of seven years or under do that which in others would be an offence, he is not liable to punishment, for the presumption of law is that he has not understanding sufficient to commit a crime. against which presumption no proof is admissible. Between the ages of seven and fourteen the presumption is that for want of understanding he cannot be an offender; but evidence is admissible to remove this presumption, & if he be found ~~to be~~ capax he shall be punished.

as a criminal; in this case matutia, supplens etotum. Between 14 & 21 infancy can in no case be any cause. The same rule holds as to his liability, for any injury done by him & he is liable in an action of fraud, as in intesta ble as a test. Although an infant may avoid his contracts generally, yet he shall be bound when those contracts are for necessities, which are Physick, Cloathing, Food & Instruction, and those must be such as are suitable to the infants rank in life, those which are reasonable for a person under his circumstances to purchase. For it may be ^{very} necessary that an infant who has no parent, master or guardian, pro who by the Provinc de officiis separated from them, so that he can make no application to them for relief, to contract for his necessary subsistence, for those things which ~~must~~ ^{must} be left with them under their care and protection, would not be necessary for him to contract for, since from them he would receive all that was necessary for him to receive. By where a child is so treated by an ^{unnatural} unguarded parent or cruel master, that a comfortable and reasonable subsistence is denied him, the law will sub-stain his contracts for necessities, that is the law puts it out of the infants power 3 es to refuse payment for necessities afforded him under ^{such} these circumstances as have been mentioned. And even in this case whenever the his contract is so managed, that the consideration of the contract, from the nature of the security cannot be enquired into, such security is void. If the law was otherwise the infant might be compelled to pay much more than a reasonable price for his necessities, and thus through indifference ruin himself. Hence we find an infant cannot bind himself in a bond with a penalty, for in this case the court cannot enquire into the consideration but judgement must be rendered for the whole sum in the condition with interest when perhaps the real worth of the necessaries was not half so much as the sum contained in the condition. This I can ceive to be the true reason why a bond with a penalty does bind the infant, and not the reason commonly mentioned in the Books. "That it cannot be for the infant's advantage to subject himself to a penalty"

As the courts are vested with power to chance down to the principle of justice and interest. And however this might be a reason before the statute for vesting the court with this power of chancery since it has certainly ceased to be a reason. upon this ground the consideration of a single Bill may be enquired into and altho the bill acknowledged a debt of 50 lb yet the judgment may be for five pounds only, if it be found that the necessities for which the bill was given were of no greater value. We find also an infant is not bound by a note of hand negotiable for the consideration of such a note cannot be enquired into. — he is however bound by a note not negotiable for in this case the consideration may be enquired into. So again he is not bound by a bill of exchange where no enquiry can be made respecting the consideration. No action is maintainable against an infant upon an infirmus Camputatset. And altho it is true that an infi-rmus camputatset may be enquired into the reason of the case seems to be that the only consideration set up for the ground of the promise, is an account stated. Here the law does not consider the infant as 8 having sufficient discretion to take an except. In all these cases that the security is void yet the security remains good. Thus stands the English Law respecting the contracts of infants. In no case shall the infant be liable for more than the value of the necessaries purchased, than any indifference in giving a security, which from the nature of it would prevent any inquiry into the nature of the necessities. And yet in no case shall it be in his power to ~~prevent~~ avoid the payment of the just value of the necessities. That infants should be bound to pay the real value of the necessaries, is an idea that has been adopted by our courts; and that they should not be obliged to pay an exorbitant price for these necessities, is certainly to be wished and must on all hands, be acknowledged to be a doctrine highly reasonable. But would not the doctrine wholly deprive the mother of an infant in this country? A note of hand is treated by us as a bond with a penalty and the consideration can not be enquired into. Might not an infant in this way be subjected to great loss when he has indifferently given a note a price for necessaries and given his note for them, and thus falls a sacrifice to his own indiferece and the avarice of the shop which most undoubtedly the law means to protect him against. Is an infants note to be considered valid, and no action maintainable thereon, altho given for necessaries? This would be contrary to justice & yet the law could never afford that protection to infants it means to do, unless the idea is admitted, or when infancy is pleaded the rule should be altered respecting the inquiry into the consideration and finding the full value of the necessaries without any respect to the sum promised in the note. The adoption of this method of rejecting the note, and compelling the inditor to refer to the original contract where the value of the article ^{old} may be ascertained by the Triers, will preserve entire the principles of Law in compelling the infant to pay the just value of the necessaries, and at the same time prevent his suffering any injury from his own indiferece. It is no more necessary to adopt the measure pro-proposed when we take into consideration that the articles themselves which are necessities do not convey to us the full legal import of the term in, that which is necessary for an infant, may not be so for another. The circumstances of the infant must always be taken into consideration; for never, the infant is under the care of a Parent master or Guardian and that government is duly exercised, no contracts for the articles termed necessities shall bind the infant, for they were not necessary for him. But when the infant in the course of human affairs is separated from Parent &c and cannot be subject to their government and protection, or when an unnatural Parent or cruel master or avaricious Guardian shall so conduct towards an infant, that a comfortable subsistence is denied him, or if they should be incapable of affording that subsistence, the infants contracts for necessities shall bind him. This may frequently happen. A minor is liable to be called into the field, in time of war, and in a distant state, separated from his connections, and cannot resort to them for relief in his circumstances he ever so distressing.

 The same may happen when on a journey from business, or for the recovery of his health. And the case is not altered if the infant voluntarily leaves his Parent without just reason, for it is the situation that gives efficacy to the contract without & any reference to the preceding cause which ac-casioned that situation. Thus I conceive stands the common Law. It is said by some that our statute has made a material difference and confides all contracts of infants void, so that their contracts for necessaries are equally void as their other contracts. I conceive that the statute has made no alteration, but is only a statute in affirmance of the Common Law. The mode of expression made use of by the statute is "all persons under the government of Parent or master or Guardian shall be incapable of contracting;" the true construction which I conceive to be such as are the natural subjects of their actual government for such can never want to contract for themselves. There was no occasion for limiting them. But this incapacity ought not to extend to all such as have Parents &c. so situated with respect to them that no government or protection can be afforded them. In this view of the matter it differs not from the Common Law unless it may be supposed that the statute intended to prevent protection minors from contracting when under the actual government of parents &c. However an duty that government was exercised. It can hardly be thought that so inhuman a provision could be the object of the Legislature or that the term government in this statute was meant to extend to a government in duty exempted. I conceive such a case ought to be considered as an exception. The Statute is overextended to cover. Besides if the Statute had intended anything of this kind, and so overturn the doctrine of necessaries, a doctrine at the time the Statute was enacted, that is, a doctrine understood, then terms more decisive to the intention of the act would have been made use of. This was long before the law of this state, and yet the doctrine of necessities has never been questioned. The Statute at the time it was enacted, received no such construction as was subsequently put upon this doctrine. A total silence in all our courts, respecting any alteration actually made as intended is a confirmation of the construction, I intend on. In the beginning of this Statute we find that after the Statute has declared that "all persons under the guidance of Parent Master &c are incapable of contracting unless licensed by the Parent &c. The Statute says that any such Person this Parent &c shall be bound thereby. The last clause was not the Statute but to the contrary. But I conceive there was no alteration in the law, as it was before, but a more express declaration of what the Statute intended; as the obscure manner in which the Statute was before expressed might lead to this construction, that a Person so allowed by his parent &c to contract, was bound by that contract, which the Statute never intended. The licence is an absolute necessary to the contract, so as to bind the person contracting but only

I aver & say, as to make the contract of the person thus licensed binding upon the Parent. or in other words, the contract of the minor was in such case the contract of the Parent all of which is no more than declaratory of the Common Law.

of the intention of the Devisor, how far it shall govern the devise. The intention of the devisor, shall govern, in all cases if not inconsistent with some rule of Law. If a man by deed at Common Law gives land, to another, generally without words of limitation the donee has but an estate for life. ^{But} But in almost every instance in which this rule has been applied to a devise of Land, it has defeated the intention of the testator. ^{See} Case, 355.

But the intention of the testator, ought in all cases to be ascertained, unless contrary to the Statute law or sound policy, as if he attempts to create a perpetuity, by an estate in fee simple, and that intention should never be dealt with, the want of technical expressions. The English Courts have not in all cases adhered to the rule, "That the intention of the testator, is not to give a rule or law. If a gives his house to B. by devise.

B. has a life estate, however clear the intention of the testator may be to give a fee. Because it is a rule of law that a fee cannot be given with words of limitation in this case, and yet in the case put in the devise no fee is given, and if the devisee would have taken had used words of ^{2d} ^{3d} ^{4th} exclusivity the devisee would have taken a fee ^{2d} ^{3d} ^{4th} ^{5th} ^{6th} ^{7th} ^{8th} ^{9th} ^{10th} ^{11th} ^{12th} ^{13th} ^{14th} ^{15th} ^{16th} ^{17th} ^{18th} ^{19th} ^{20th} ^{21st} ^{22nd} ^{23rd} ^{24th} ^{25th} ^{26th} ^{27th} ^{28th} ^{29th} ^{30th} ^{31st} ^{32nd} ^{33rd} ^{34th} ^{35th} ^{36th} ^{37th} ^{38th} ^{39th} ^{40th} ^{41st} ^{42nd} ^{43rd} ^{44th} ^{45th} ^{46th} ^{47th} ^{48th} ^{49th} ^{50th} ^{51st} ^{52nd} ^{53rd} ^{54th} ^{55th} ^{56th} ^{57th} ^{58th} ^{59th} ^{60th} ^{61st} ^{62nd} ^{63rd} ^{64th} ^{65th} ^{66th} ^{67th} ^{68th} ^{69th} ^{70th} ^{71st} ^{72nd} ^{73rd} ^{74th} ^{75th} ^{76th} ^{77th} ^{78th} ^{79th} ^{80th} ^{81st} ^{82nd} ^{83rd} ^{84th} ^{85th} ^{86th} ^{87th} ^{88th} ^{89th} ^{90th} ^{91st} ^{92nd} ^{93rd} ^{94th} ^{95th} ^{96th} ^{97th} ^{98th} ^{99th} ^{100th} ^{101st} ^{102nd} ^{103rd} ^{104th} ^{105th} ^{106th} ^{107th} ^{108th} ^{109th} ^{110th} ^{111th} ^{112th} ^{113th} ^{114th} ^{115th} ^{116th} ^{117th} ^{118th} ^{119th} ^{120th} ^{121st} ^{122nd} ^{123rd} ^{124th} ^{125th} ^{126th} ^{127th} ^{128th} ^{129th} ^{130th} ^{131st} ^{132nd} ^{133rd} ^{134th} ^{135th} ^{136th} ^{137th} ^{138th} ^{139th} ^{140th} ^{141st} ^{142nd} ^{143rd} ^{144th} ^{145th} ^{146th} ^{147th} ^{148th} ^{149th} ^{150th} ^{151st} ^{152nd} ^{153rd} ^{154th} ^{155th} ^{156th} ^{157th} ^{158th} ^{159th} ^{160th} ^{161st} ^{162nd} ^{163rd} ^{164th} ^{165th} ^{166th} ^{167th} ^{168th} ^{169th} ^{170th} ^{171st} ^{172nd} ^{173rd} ^{174th} ^{175th} ^{176th} ^{177th} ^{178th} ^{179th} ^{180th} ^{181st} ^{182nd} ^{183rd} ^{184th} ^{185th} ^{186th} ^{187th} ^{188th} ^{189th} ^{190th} ^{191st} ^{192nd} ^{193rd} ^{194th} ^{195th} ^{196th} ^{197th} ^{198th} ^{199th} ^{200th} ^{201st} ^{202nd} ^{203rd} ^{204th} ^{205th} ^{206th} ^{207th} ^{208th} ^{209th} ^{210th} ^{211st} ^{212nd} ^{213th} ^{214th} ^{215th} ^{216th} ^{217th} ^{218th} ^{219th} ^{220th} ^{221st} ^{222nd} ^{223rd} ^{224th} ^{225th} ^{226th} ^{227th} ^{228th} ^{229th} ^{230th} ^{231st} ^{232nd} ^{233rd} ^{234th} ^{235th} ^{236th} ^{237th} ^{238th} ^{239th} ^{240th} ^{241st} ^{242nd} ^{243rd} ^{244th} ^{245th} ^{246th} ^{247th} ^{248th} ^{249th} ^{250th} ^{251st} ^{252nd} ^{253rd} ^{254th} ^{255th} ^{256th} ^{257th} ^{258th} ^{259th} ^{260th} ^{261st} ^{262nd} ^{263rd} ^{264th} ^{265th} ^{266th} ^{267th} ^{268th} ^{269th} ^{270th} ^{271st} ^{272nd} ^{273rd} ^{274th} ^{275th} ^{276th} ^{277th} ^{278th} ^{279th} ^{280th} ^{281st} ^{282nd} ^{283rd} ^{284th} ^{285th} ^{286th} ^{287th} ^{288th} ^{289th} ^{290th} ^{291st} ^{292nd} ^{293rd} ^{294th} ^{295th} ^{296th} ^{297th} ^{298th} ^{299th} ^{300th} ^{301st} ^{302nd} ^{303rd} ^{304th} ^{305th} ^{306th} ^{307th} ^{308th} ^{309th} ^{310th} ^{311st} ^{312nd} ^{313th} ^{314th} ^{315th} ^{316th} ^{317th} ^{318th} ^{319th} ^{320th} ^{321st} ^{322nd} ^{323rd} ^{324th} ^{325th} ^{326th} ^{327th} ^{328th} ^{329th} ^{330th} ^{331st} ^{332nd} ^{333rd} ^{334th} ^{335th} ^{336th} ^{337th} ^{338th} ^{339th} ^{340th} ^{341st} ^{342nd} ^{343rd} ^{344th} ^{345th} ^{346th} ^{347th} ^{348th} ^{349th} ^{350th} ^{351st} ^{352nd} ^{353rd} ^{354th} ^{355th} ^{356th} ^{357th} ^{358th} ^{359th} ^{360th} ^{361st} ^{362nd} ^{363rd} ^{364th} ^{365th} ^{366th} ^{367th} ^{368th} ^{369th} ^{370th} ^{371st} ^{372nd} ^{373rd} ^{374th} ^{375th} ^{376th} ^{377th} ^{378th} ^{379th} ^{380th} ^{381st} ^{382nd} ^{383rd} ^{384th} ^{385th} ^{386th} ^{387th} ^{388th} ^{389th} ^{390th} ^{391st} ^{392nd} ^{393rd} ^{394th} ^{395th} ^{396th} ^{397th} ^{398th} ^{399th} ^{400th} ^{401st} ^{402nd} ^{403rd} ^{404th} ^{405th} ^{406th} ^{407th} ^{408th} ^{409th} ^{410th} ^{411st} ^{412nd} ^{413th} ^{414th} ^{415th} ^{416th} ^{417th}

In an action on a statute for a penalty where there is an exception or proviso in the enactment, the exception must be negatived by the Pltff in his declaration. He must shew himself entitled under the enacting clause. This is a distinction between a proviso in the description & the offence, and a substantive exemption from the penalty under certain circumstances. The exemption is a matter of defence and to be shewn by the Def't. 15, in Rep 446 Spicers vs Parker.

Nothing is to be presumed after verdict and trial is expressly stated in the declaration, or trial is necessarily implied from those facts which are stated. For at the trial the Pltff is only to make his allegation in his declaration.
